

BRENDON GREEN

COMEDY ASSISTANCE

You are funny!
(but sometimes it's nice to get help from a professional)

If you are MCing an event, keynote speaking, or heading to a school reunion and are nervous to talk to an old crush, I can help enhance your laugh rate with personalised writing services.

I'm a writer and comedian – a Fred Award and Billy T Award Nominee, NZ Comedy School Teacher, and go-to MC for comedy shows all over NZ – who loves making other people funny.

What I Can Do For You

- Gag Sheet

(most popular!)

Get a list of topic and event specific jokes in easy to read bulletpoint format. Pick and choose which ones you want to use.

- Mail Time

Let me write your newsletters! The best way to engage your core audience, without relying on mysterious algorithms to reach your fans and/or haters.

OR

I can email your Mum updates about you so she doesn't have to worry so much.

- Speech Easy

I will look at your presentation and suggest edits, additions, and punch ups*.

OR

I will write your entire speech from scratch. Because the hardest part of writing is actually writing the damn thing.

(*humour additions, not one outing the audience)

- Copy That

Get engaging, funny, and natural copy for your website, ebook, or social media. I can write about any topic – so come at me with your weirdest requests.

COMEDY AWARDS

How Much?

Free! Haha, good joke Brendon. I can do either an hourly rate ($65 p/h) or total project fee, depending on what you need.
